CONGRESS.

The Proceedings of Both Houses To-day.

Senator Beck Is After Consular Officers and Mr. Butler Looks into Dakota.

The House Considers the Proposed New Rules—Nominations at New York City.

THE CAPITAL.

The Work and News There To-day.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Among the bills introduced and referred were the following:

By Teller, to provide for the free and unlimited coinage of the silver dollar.

By Ingalls, to provide for determining existence and removal of the inability of the president to discharge the powers and duties of his office.

The resolution heretofore offered by Mr. Beck was laid before the senate requesting the president to cause inquiry to be made and to inform the senate whether any consular officer of the United States, since 1868, had any interest or received benefit from any national consular or commercial officials of foreign countries. Referred to the committee on commerce.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Butler, directing the committee on territories to inquire and report by what authority a so called legislature has been organized in the territory of Dakota and whether such an organization was not calculated to bring about a conflict of authority prejudicial to the good order in that territory. Butler asked immediate consideration. Mr. Ingalls objected and the resolution lies over one day.

The senate then proceeded to the calendar, the first bill being Hoar's presidential succession bill.

HOUSE.

Mr. Brown, of Indiana, offered a resolution changing the rules so as to provide that leave to print in the record shall be allowed only when the question is under consideration. Referred.

On motion of Norwood, of Georgia, a senate bill was passed removing the political disabilities of Alexander R. Lawton, of Georgia.

The discussion of the proposed revision of rules was then resumed and Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, took the floor in favor of the general features.

NOTES.

The president sent the following nominations to the senate to-day: John Bigelow, of New York, assistant treasurer of the United States at New York; Franz Siegel, of New York, pension agent at New York city.

Obituaries.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 16.—The wife of the secretary of the American legation, Joseph D. Morgan, of South Carolina, is dead.

Boston, Dec. 16.—Charles Foster, a once noted spiritualistic medium, is dead.

WASHINGTON, Ga., Dec. 16.—Gen. Robert Toombs died here yesterday morning. The funeral will take place at Washington, Ga., Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock.

Guilty of Murder.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—Robert J. Phillips, who out his wife's throat in this city last June, has been found guilty, fixing the penalty of death. When he killed his wife he cut his own throat, but not fatally. He now breathes through a silver tube and threatens to pull it out and end his life rather than be hanged.

Scarlet Fever.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. PITTSBURGH, Dec. 16.—Scarlet fever of malignant type has broken out at the Potestant Episcopal home for children in this city. Eighty-five children are in the home and the situation is alarming. Four deaths have occurred.

Another Outbreak Likely.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. BEVERLY, Mo., Dec. 16.—Within the last twenty-four hours, the aspect of affairs entirely changed. The peace negotiations have fallen through with and an outbreak may be expected at any time.

The Grant Monument Fund.

By Telegram to The Sentinel. NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The fund for the Grant monument was yesterday increased by turning in some special trade subscriptions to the sum of $111,000. This is certainly sufficient nucleus to justify the committee in going to work seriously to secure an adequate design.

FRANK RANDE.

The "Bandit of the Wabash," Shines in a Doctor's Shop —A Fort Wayne Criminal.

The Joliet Press is writing up criminal celebrities and writes an epitaph for Frank Rande, the bandit once "sent up" from Fort Wayne. It says: "Of all the ones most execrated in life ever consigned to the prison burying ground was Frank Rande, alias Frank Durand, alias Chas. A. Vanzant; right name Chas. S. Scott, 'the terrible,' born in Clayville, Washington county, Pa., Sept. 23, 1839. Occupation, gunsmith, blacksmith, and chairmaker; done five years in Michigan City (Ind.) penitentiary, serving every day of it (made no good time). Discharged May 2, '77; self-styled 'American brigand, brilliant and daring bandit of the Wabash.' The Gibson and St. Elmo murderer, the St. Louis pawnshop fiend, the slayer of several men, the sensation of '77 and '78 in criminal circles in America; age 38 when received in the pen, Feb. 23, '78, from Galesburg, Knox county; life sentence. His bloody deeds, trial and sentence, had conduct in prison, murderous assault on Deputy McDonald and suicidal death by hanging, March 2, '84, in the solitary, are still fresh in the minds of our readers. His father refused to take his dead body when notified of his death, and he was taken out to the hill, it is safe to say, however, that his bones now grace the skeleton closet of some modern Esculapius.

MRS. FROST Gets Judgment For $225 Against Fred Stringer.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Harriett Frost vs. Fred O. Stringer came in this morning with a verdict for the lady for $225. The jury did not implicate Eliza T. Stringer, father of Fred Stringer, and made the verdict entirely against his son. The suit grew out of an accident to Mrs. Frost, who, while crossing Calhoun street, some time ago, was run into and trampled by a little pony ridden by Fred Stringer. Of course Mr. Stringer regretted the matter more than anyone else, but his apology and efforts to atone for the casualty could not stay the suit.

Dr. Munhall in California.

The Los Angeles Express says of the opening of Dr. L. W. Munhall's meeting there last Sunday. "The largest religious movement, without a doubt, was commenced in Los Angeles last Sunday night. Fully 5,000 people assembled in the tabernacle to listen to Dr. L. W. Munhall, the evangelist. He is a good speaker, has a clear, full voice, and talks without effort, and keeps his audience interested with anecdotes and illustrations, and at the same time keeps straight the thread of his discourse." Dr. Munhall will remain in Los Angeles a month or six weeks, and go thence to Portland, Ore.

Christian Missionary Evangelist.

The Indiana Christian Missionary society and the State Sunday School association recently consolidated interests and elected two state agents to work jointly for the two bodies. One of these, Rev. L. L. Carpenter, now announces his retirement from the service of these associations, and the entire work has been conferred upon Rev. J. H. O. Smith, who will have official jurisdiction throughout the state as evangelist and agent.

"The entire detective service of the Government is to be reorganized very soon," said a private detective—a man who was formerly in the secret service. "The change ought to have been made years ago. These special agents of the Treasury Department have always been a joke. When a man makes a failure of every other business he is ready to be made a special agent. There are three branches of detective service in hunting up violations of the revenue laws. There is the secret service, then come the special agents of the Treasury Department, and besides these are the Inspectors of the Internal Revenue Department. These three departments of detective service, I am informed, are to be placed by Secretary Manning, within two or three months, under one head—the secret service. This will not necessarily cause the dismissal of the special agents, though many will probably not be needed."

IN IRONS.

Levi Kessler, the Murderer of Lex Harner, Caught at His Father's Home—He Confesses His Guilt.

Sheriff Boyle and Wesley Work, of DeKalb county, remained in the city all night, and this morning received a telegram from Lima, reading "Kessler is in jail. Will have him in Fort Wayne at noon."

Pittsburg passenger train No. 1 whirled the criminal into the city. Marshal Larry O'Neil, of Lima, and his deputy, had Kessler in charge. The murderer was chained to the deputy marshal and the Scotch cap that covered his head was pulled down to shade his eyes. He was hurried to the "buns" and the Lima and DeKalb county officers, Sheriff Nelson and newspaper men were driven to the north depot, where Conductor Cooper held the train especially to carry the culprit to the scene of the killing.

En route to the depot, THE SENTINEL man lifted Kessler's cap from his eyes and revealed a fresh scar on the bridge of his nose. "Will you make a statement of the tragedy," said the reporter. Kessler said not a word. The muscles of his face twitched and he buried his face in his hands, using a red silk handkerchief to absorb the tears that ran from his eyes. "Will you tell us the cause of the tragedy," urged the scribe.

"I have nothing to say," sobbed the fellow, who never looked a man in the face during the trip. He stepped lightly on the Jackson train and was sped on to the scene of the bloody crime, committed on the Jackson road, between New Era and DeKalb, last Monday morning.

THE CAPTURE.

Marshal O'Neil, his deputy, and the sheriff of Allen county, proceeded to the home of Daniel Kessler, five miles from Lima, at 1:30 last night. With drawn revolvers they surrounded the house. The elder Mr. Kessler answered a tap on the door and admitted the officers. They stepped into a side room and there on a cot lay young Kessler. He said not a word, made no attempt to get away and dressed himself on short notice. His old mother was aroused and asked, "What does this mean?" Marshal O'Neil said, "Madame, he is charged with murdering Lex Harner." The aged woman gathered herself and looking her son in the face asked: "Did you kill him?" "Yes, mother, I did," replied the boy with tears streaming down his face. Here was a scene. His mother hid her face in her hands. His father stood like marble, so frightful and unexpected was the news.

Kessler left the house with the officers and told the story of the bloody deed: "I killed him for his money," said he. "We walked along the track to a lonely spot and then stepping back I fired two shots into Harner's skull. He fell lifeless, I thought, and I hurriedly searched his pockets, getting but a little over $6 and his watch and chain. I took a circuit about and boarded a Jackson train at Stoner's station. This train picked up the man I shot. I went to Fort Wayne and then came over the Pittsburg road to Lima."

Kessler was placed in the Lima jail and the prisoners posted him to silence. After that he would not say a word.

THE PRISONER.

Kessler is about twenty-four years of age, pretty tall and a fresh moustache is sprouting from his ugly face. His cheek bones are high, his eyes evasive and his whole frame is moulded for a scoundrel. A long, imitation 'new market overcoat encircled him. The dead man's watch was found on his person. He carried the 38-calibre revolver he shot him with and already there is a clear case against him.

Lex Harner's body will be shipped to Taneytown, Md., to-morrow. His mother lives there. It is said the dead man's money, or most of it, has been found in his trunk.

It is told that a Pittsburg brakeman slept with Kessler in a hotel, at Lima, Monday night, but did not know of his guilt. The railroader told Capt. Diehl and Lieut. Wilkinson of this morning.

IN JAIL.

Sheriff Nelson telephones from Auburn that he arrived there all right and that their prisoner was safely landed in jail. He refuses to say anything to the authorities there, but they have proof of his guilt. Sheriff Nelson will receive the reward offered by DeKalb county.

There are no fears of lynching up north.

Boston's Election.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 16.—An analysis of the vote shows that in some of the strongest democratic wards the mayor lost and he gained in the strong republican wards. The board of aldermen elected is equally divided between the two parties, six to six. The common council is about as last year, with thirty-one republicans to forty-one democrats. The majority for license was 9,969. The women candidates for school committee were all defeated.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

PENIT, Ind., Dec. 16.—City Marshal Bazorth, of this city, last evening arrested a runaway boy named Charles F. Holtzendorf, aged fifteen, who left home on December 13. Telegraphic communication with the Plymouth authorities proved his identity; also, the lamentable fact that his father had gone violently insane from grief at his son's disappearance.

From this, however, must be deducted $900 in receipts and cash, leaving a deficit of $2,800 which they will make good.

ISAAC STULTZ

In the Role of An Embezzler and Rascal.

Isaac Stultz, in partnership with another man, ran a saw mill at South Whitley. He had a wife and child and made money. Monday he went to Columbia City, and on forged notes borrowed $1,100 from Brown & Peabody. He returned to South Whitley and that night eloped with his brother's wife. The pair came here and shipped three boxes of goods to this city via the Nickel Plate. Here he added a fine organ, by purchase, and under the name of H. C. Shuffler, shipped the articles to St. Paul, following them with his woman. Marshal Supple, of Columbia City, came here to catch the fellow and Officer Singleton cleverly tracked him up so that now Supple can go to St. Paul and bag his man.

This morning S. W. Brady and C. H. Garwood, of Toledo, assumed control of the Academy of Music. Manager Dink Trentman signed the lease over to the new firm and they are in control. Their intention is to form a theatrical circuit in Ohio and Indiana. They are after other houses in this state and then they will play their attractions at popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 16.—Early this morning the village of Woodmore, a suburb of this city, was the scene of a most horrible fire. Some men returning from home at 2:30 discovered the small frame house of Frank Knox on fire. Knox was found in the front room with his wife in his arms. Both bodies were burned to a crisp. A few feet away was an unrecognizable mass, supposed to be the remains of the oldest child, a boy three years old. Of the baby nine months old there is no trace, and it is supposed the body was completely consumed.

There is one thing nobody ever regrets—that is, the day they first adopted Parker's Tonic as their regular family medicine. Its range is so wide, and its good effects so sure, that nothing else, except good nursing, are needed in a great majority of cases. Buy it, try it, and afterwards it will not require say praise from us.

GUARDING A "ROLLER COASTER."

La Fayette's new "roller coaster" at Linwood Park has a vigilant night watchman in ex-Policeman John McGrath, who is careful to see that no daring spirits take surreptitious rides upon the coaster during the hours of darkness, and who is himself a most fearless and gallant rider. Mr. McGrath is a hearty looking man, but yet has had occasion to lament the fact that a policeman's lot is not a happy one. The truth is Mr. McGrath has suffered from that distressing complaint—rheumatism, but he is no longer afflicted with it. Athlophoros cured him and he is now as well able to chase down any evil-doer and land him behind bolts and bars as he ever was. Being asked as to his rheumatism and cure Mr. McGrath gave this account:

"I was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism in the hip. I suffered much pain and was obliged to quit work entirely. I was helpless so far as walking was concerned and was confined to my bed for six weeks. In my efforts to get relief I used many kinds of medicines and liniments, but they failed to make any change for the better. After trying so many kinds of medicines I was very loath to experiment with any new remedy, but seeing Athlophoros recommended so highly I purchased a bottle. After using the one bottle I was entirely well and able to go to work. Have I had any return of the pains since? None whatever. I have not lost a day's work since."

Mr. W. B. King, the dealer in sewing machines at the corner of Fifth and Columbia streets, has had an equally satisfactory experience with Athlophoros in curing rheumatism.

"It was magical in its effects upon me," he says. "I was first taken with pain in the soles of my feet and in a few hours was not able to walk at all. The rapidity with which the disease spread over my whole system was wonderful. Every bone, muscle and joint in my body gave me the most intense pain. My arms were both drawn up, and I could not walk, eat or sleep. I suffered in this way for many weeks. Finally, by the persuasion of a friend who knew of Athlophoros, I was induced to try it. I had taken but a few doses when I had very decided relief. I continued taking the medicine until I had used six bottles, and I have not had a pain of rheumatism since."

Still another resident of La Fayette, Ind., who has used the wonderful remedy with the happiest results is Mrs. A. E. Sherman, of No. 159 Main street, who suffered so severely with sciatic rheumatism that at times she could not walk.

"I tried every kind of liniment, besides many medicines," says Mrs. Sherman, "but could get no relief. I finally said: 'Well, I am going to try this Athlophoros; it is spoken of very highly.' After using about three-quarters of a bottle I began to experience relief. I used about three bottles and have not had any pain since. My mother, Mrs. Linn, who lives with me, is now seventy-seven years old, and for about five years was badly crippled with rheumatism. She was much worse than I; in fact, at one time we thought she would never get well, and more as an experiment than anything else I gave her a quarter of a bottle of Athlophoros. She got some relief even with that small amount and continued using it to the extent of four bottles. She does not have any pain now, but still has some stiffness in her joints."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York.

Mitchell, Hargrove, Sieg, Seward, Duncan, Custer, Banks and Lockhart. UNCLE SAM'S expenses during the last year were almost a million a day for each business day. That this republic is not ungrateful is shown by the fact that the pension item leads the list with $56,000,000; next is miscellaneous, including public buildings, light houses, collecting the revenue, etc., $54,000,000; interest on the public debt, $51,000,000; the sinking fund, $46,000,000; military, including rivers, harbors and arsenals, $43,000,000; civil expenses (congress, judiciary, etc.), $24,000,000; navy, $16,000,000; Indians, $6,000,000; foreign intercourse, $5,000,000; and District of Columbia, $3,500,000.

TERMS for the consolidation of the Wabash Courier and Plaindealer, the two republican newspapers of Wabash, were agreed upon yesterday. A joint stock company, with a capital of $12,000, is to be formed. The good will of the Courier, exclusive of the presses and type, which are retained by Lee Linn, the publisher, being capitalized at $2,800, the Plaindealer establishment being placed in stock at $9,200. Newell, Harris and Bacon, proprietors of the Plaindealer, together with Charley Haas, will have charge of the reorganized Courier, Mr. Linn removing to Logansport, with the material of the Courier, where he will re-embark in the newspaper business.

A BOOK-AGENT has been arrested in Pennsylvania for peddling books without a license; and it is argued in his defense that as he sells books not sold in book-stores, he is interfering with no one's business and should not be prosecuted. Perhaps it will be just as well if he gets off on this plea. The book-agent is a nuisance, certainly; but he—or she—occasionally sells a book worth having; and, besides, he—or she—is a sort of missionary in cultivating patience. No one wants to be rude to the woman who sells books, or even to the man who shows tact in his work; and the result of a thousand visitations is that business men learn to restrain themselves when they do not feel like it. The result must be the cultivation of what bears a striking resemblance to a Christian spirit. "Sorrow," says the Bible, "is better than laughter, for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better;" and for producing this desirable condition surely none can surpass the book-agent.

In the matter of Mr. Kelly and the Austrian government Ten Sentinels can inform its readers that the only reason why that government refused to accept him as minister plenipotentiary of the United States was because of his wife's race extraction. Whatever other objections are later offered are mere side issues. The Sentinel has its information from a prominent and well informed gentleman who received his knowledge in this particular instance from undisputed sources in Europe last summer. Mr. Kelly's marriage, it may here be stated, was not a civil marriage, as the press reports have it, but he was married by a clergyman. We repeat that the only reason for which the Austrian government refused to accept Mr. Kelly was because "his wife would not be present, able at court." This is said to have been the expression of the court of Vienna.

A PRIZE of $5,000 was offered some time ago by Mr. Lorillard, of New York, for the discovery of the key of the ancient Maya alphabet. The offer is still standing. Dr. Le Plongeon, who has recently returned from a twelve years' study of the ruins and mountains in Yucatan, is thus far the strongest competitor for the award.

CATARRH
Is a very prevalent and exceedingly disagreeable disease, liable, if neglected, to develop into serious consumption. Being a constitutional disease, it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acting through the blood reaches every part of the system, effecting a radical and permanent cure of catarrh in even its most severe forms. Made only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Storm Signals.
As the coming of a great storm is heralded by the display of cautionary signals, so is the approach of that dread disease, consumption of the lungs, usually announced in advance by pimples, blotches, eruptions, ulcers, glandular swellings, and kindred outward manifestations of the in erial blood poison which, if not promptly expelled from the system, attacks the delicate tissues of the lungs, causing them to ulcerate and break down. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great remedy for this, as for all diseases having their origin in bad blood. It improves the appetite and digestion, increases nutrition and builds up the wasted system.

Bronze-shippers, with hosiery to match, make the feet smaller.

GLUTEN FLOUR.
"What is it?" This question is often asked by people accustomed only to the use of flour made by the ordinary process.

Gluten Flour, as its name indicates, is especially prepared, possessing the gluten or life-giving and muscle-building elements of the wheat, discarding entirely the bran, and nearly as practicable the starch.

Thus a perfect product of wheat has been attained, palatable and highly nutritious. Specially adapted to the use of Diabetics and Dyspepsia.

Gluten Flour is made by Farwell & Rhines, Watertown, N. Y. Write for circulars and prices.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; produces natural, quiet sleep; by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Lead & W.

DO NOT BE DECEIVED.
Hypocritism is the compliment vice pays to virtue. Imitation is the compliment failure pays to success. The name—the character—of Benson's Capsule Plasters is imitated by unscrupulous parties, who make and try to sell plasters variously called "Capsulin," "Capelinum," "Capelene," "Capulin" plasters, with the manifest intention to deceive. So cunningly and boldly is this done that careless people are doubtless sometimes beguiled into buying such articles in place of the genuine. Happily the number who follow this vocation decreases every year through the refusal of reputable dealers to handle the imitation goods, meanwhile the genuine in the middle of the genuine is cut or porous the word "Capsulin," and on the face cloth is the "Three Seals" trademark. Ask for Benson's—then examine. One Benson's is worth a dozen of any other kind. 30-4w

Danger from Catarrh

That exceedingly disagreeable and very prevalent disease, catarrh, is caused by secretions in the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla, by its powerful purifying and vitalizing action upon the blood, speedily removes the cause, and thus effects a radical and permanent cure of catarrh. Those who suffer from its varied symptoms—uncomfortable flow from the nose, offensive breath, ringing and bursting noises in the ears, swelling of the soft parts of the throat, nervous prostration, etc.—should take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

The Best Medicine

"I have suffered with catarrh in my head for years, and paid out hundreds of dollars for medicines, but have heretofore received only temporary relief. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and now my catarrh is nearly cured, the weakness of my body is all gone, my appetite is good—in fact, I feel like another person. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I have ever taken." Mrs. A. CUNNINGHAM, Providence, R. I.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Made only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar.

Serious consequences are liable to ensue if catarrh is not attended to in season. The disease frequently destroys the sense of smell and often develops into bronchitis or pulmonary consumption. Undoubtedly many cases of consumption originate in catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh and has even effected remarkable cures of consumption itself, in its early stages. A book containing statements of many cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, will be sent free to all who send address to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Catarrh and Impure Blood

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has helped me more for catarrh and impure blood than anything else I ever used." A. RALL, Syracuse, N. Y. "I suffered three years with catarrh, and my general health was poor in consequence. When I took Hood's Sarsaparilla I found I had the right remedy. The catarrh is yielding, as Hood's Sarsaparilla is cleansing my blood, and the general tone of my system is improving." FRANK WASHBURN, Rochester, N. Y.

EPITHELIOMA!

OR SKIN CANCER.

For seven years I suffered with a cancer on my face. All the time remedies were applied to alleviate the pain, but the place continued to grow, finally extending into my nose, from which came a yellowish discharge very offensive in character. It was also inflamed, and annoyed me a great deal. About eight months ago I was in Atlanta, at the house of a friend, who strongly recommended the use of Swift's Specific. I determined to make an effort to procure it. In this was successful, and began its use. The influence of the medicine at first was to somewhat aggravate the sore; but soon the inflammation was allayed, and I began to improve after the first few bottles. My general health has greatly improved. I am stronger, and able to do any kind of work. The cancer on my face began to decrease and the ulcer to heal, until there is not a vestige of it left—only a little scar marks the place where it had been. I am ready to answer all questions relative to this cure.

MRS. JOICIE A. McDONALD,
Atlanta, Ga., August 11, 1885.

I have had a cancer on my face for some years, extending from one cheek bone across the nose to the other. It has given me great deal of pain, at times burning and itching to such an extent that it was almost unbearable. I commenced using Swift's Specific in May, 1885, and have used eight bottles. It has given me the greatest relief by removing the inflammation and restoring my general health.

Knoxville, Iowa, Sept. 8, 1885.

For many years I was a sufferer with cancer of the nose, and having been cured by the use of S. S. S., I feel instructed by a sense of duty to suffering humanity to make this statement of my case. With the 14th bottle the cancer began to heal rapidly and soon disappeared, and for several months there has been no appearance of a sore of any kind on my nose or face, neither is my nose at all tender to the touch. I have taken about two dozen bottles S. S. S., and am soundly cured, and I know that S. S. S. effected the cure after every known remedy was tried and had failed.

ROBERT SMEDLEY,
Fort Gaines, Ga., May 1, 1885.

I had heard of the wonderful cures of Swift's Specific, and resolved to try it. I commenced taking it in April, 1884. My general health was much improved, yet the cancer which was in my breast continued to grow slowly but surely. The bunch grew and became quite heavy. I felt that I must either have it cut or die. But it commenced discharging quantities of almost black, thick blood. It continued healing around the edges until February, when it was entirely healed up and well.

Cocheset, Plymouth Co., Mass., July 12, 1885.

Swift's Specific is entirely vegetable, and seems to cure cancers by forcing out the impurities from the blood.

VANDERBILT'S WEALTH.

Some Speculations on How Much it Will Buy.

It is just as easy to say $200,000,000 as it is to say $200,000, or 200,000 grains of sand, but to persons who haven't that amount of ready change by them and do not expect to fill the full quota in 1885, and perhaps not before 1887, the bare name does not and can not give the full significance to the term. For the sake of seeing how far it will go we will take $200,000,000 in our vest pocket and go out on the street and see what we can do with it.

Two thousand million!

Enough to buy 2,000,000 sealskin saques, which would clothe every woman in New England.

Enough to buy 4,000,000,000 loaves of bread, every man, woman and child in the United States eighty loaves, and every inhabitant of the earth four loaves each, making a pile of solid bread higher than the tallest mountain on earth.

Enough to buy 40,000,000 barrels of flour at $5 each. If these barrels were placed end to end they would reach around the earth on the parallel of Boston, or they would fence in every state in the Union.

Enough to ride 8,000,000,000 miles at the usual two and a half cents per mile, railroad fare, or forty times from here to the sun and back; so far that if a man rode at the rate of sixty miles an hour it would take him 15,000 years to use up $200,000,000 in railroad fares.

Enough to buy 80,000,000 pairs of boots or shoes at $2.50 a pair, which keep every resident of the United States in shoes for a year.

Enough to buy 1,000,000,000 pounds of beefsteak at twenty cents a pound, more beefsteak than is on the face of the earth to-day.

Enough to buy 4,000,000 yards of calico at five cents a yard, 400,000,000 calico dresses of ten yards each, which would give every woman on the earth over fifteen years of age a new dress.

Enough to give every man, woman and child in the United State a $4 dinner at Parker's.

Enough to support 120,000 working-men and their families forever; so much that it would take a laborer, working Sundays and all at $2 a day, 273,000 years to earn it, or more than 16,000 men could earn in a lifetime.

Enough to make nearly 6,000 tons of solid gold, more than 1,500 horses could haul through the streets of Boston.

Enough to buy 800,000,000 pounds of coffee, 400,000,000 pounds of tea, 4,000,000,000 pounds of sugar, 100,000,000 barrels of apples, 36,000,000 tons of coal, 30,000,000 cords of wood, or 2,000,000,000 ten-cent cigars.—E.E.

The distressing disease, salt rheum, is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier. Sold by all druggists.

saulting John Miller, a resident of this county.

A heavy fog hung over the east end of town last night and residents cannot solve the phenomenon. It was almost suffocating.

Charles D. Jenny, of Indianapolis, but formerly of Fort Wayne, has been granted another patent on a commutator for reverted to the old management, therefore they are adverse to the change.

The first movement of the Vanderbilts
since the funeral took place was to place
New York Central sleeping cars on the Wabash road from St. Louis and Chicago to New York and Boston, taking effect this morning. President Webb ordered the Pullman coaches off the West Shore road.

According to tradition if Christmas day falls on Sunday all manner of good fortune follows; if on Wednesday fine weather at least will be the portion of the year. On the other days of the week some ill fortune is sure to follow through the year. Christmas day fall on Friday this year, therefore, look out for blizzards.

Of the 696 inmates of the northern prison, only seventeen of them are confined there for breach of fiduciary trusts.
The number is surprisingly small, but would be much larger were all betrayers of such trusts prosecuted. Embezzlers, as a rule, manage to secure enough cash to get out of the country or clear themselves on some technicality.

Next Easter will be late, the festival occurring on April 25, a date it has not fallen upon in 152 years, and will not again in seventy-eight years. The latest date it can possibly fall upon is April 28 and the earliest March 22. It always occurs on the first Sunday after the full moon, which falls upon or next after after March 21, and if the full moon happens on a Sunday, Easter then is the Sunday after.

Good winter apples have seldom been so cheap at this season of the year as now, notwithstanding the fact that very few were raised hereabouts last summer.
They are now selling at $2 and $2.50 per barrel, including the package, which is valued at 25 cents. This makes the price of the fruit about 66 cents per bushel. In Ohio Michigan and New York these same apples sell at $2.00 to $2.50 per bushel.

Max R. Fisher and Addie Jacobson

No. 69,255 drew $150,000; No. 14,928

The indications for the lower lake bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL, are as follows: Light local snows, slight changes in temperature, winds being variable, generally shifting to east and south.

Capt. H. C. Eastwood last night relinquished control of the Fleming house and Mr. E. E. Webster, of this city, will manage the hotel temporarily until the hostelry is leased to some person. Mr.
Scott Swann is urged to take charge of the public house.

Hon. B. Gratz Brown, the well known Missouri politician, who died at his residence near St. Louis on Sunday, is favorably remembered in Fort Wayne, especially as the candidate for vice president with Horace Greeley. Mr. Brown was the guest of the McKinnie house two days during that campaign and but two gentlemen in Fort Wayne knew it.

Hon. R. C. Bell, county attorney, will shortly institute suit against Adams county to recover over $4,000, the costs made in the conviction of Fred Richards, who murdered Amos Backesto. The Adams county authorities only want to pay $1,000, but it does not look as though Allen county should pay over $3,000 to convict their criminals. Mr.
Bell will push this case to a speedy conclusion.

Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage.

The learned clergyman lectured on "Bright and Happy Homes" to a very intelligent audience at the Temple last night. He treated the subject in a rather picturesque way, touching features of home life tenderly and depicting phases that make the fireside circle happy, good and gay. He advocated jollity, humor and the true honest pastimes,
that occasionally shook "a good old soul."
He wanted home to be pleasant and inviting and everyone in it glad, hearty and kind. Portions of the discourse might be criticised, but his picture of the review of the troops, at Washington, after the close of the rebellion, was a painting. One could almost see the heroes passing, hear their martial tread.
It was a master picture from a master mind and closed the subject at a point pleasant to contemplate on.

The mannerisms of the great minister are familiar. He reads his lecture, occasionally stepping from it for dramatic display. He drags his words, but there is music in his voice and he is a master of every artifice that will captivate an assembly.

The Proceedings of Both Houses To-day.

Senator Beck Is After Consular Officers and Mr. Butler Looks into Dakota.

The House Considers the Proposed New Rules-Nominations at New York City.

THE CAPITAL.

The Work and News There To-day.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Among the bills introduced and referred were the following:

By Teller, to provide for the free and unlimited coinage of the silver dollar.

By Ingalls, to provide for determining existence and removal of the inability of the president to discharge the powers and duties of his office.

The resolution heretofore offered by Mr. Beck was laid before the senate requesting the president to cause inquiry to be made and to inform the senate whether any consular officer of the United States, since 1878, had any interest or received benefit from any national consular or commercial officials of foreign countries. Referred to the committee on commerce.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Butler, directing the committee on territories to inquire and report by what authority a so called legislature has been organized in the territory of Dakota and whether such an organization was not calculated to bring about a conflict of authority prejudicial to the good order in that territory. Butler asked immediate consideration. Mr. Ingalls objected and the resolution lies over one day.

The senate then proceeded to the calendar, the first bill being Hoar's presidential succession bill.

NOTES.

Mr. Brown, of Indiana, offered a resolution changing the rules so as to provide that leave to print in the record shall be allowed only when the question is under consideration. Referred.

On motion of Norwood, of Georgia, a senate bill was passed removing the political disabilities of Alexander R. Lawton, of Georgia.

The discussion of the proposed revision of rules was then resumed and Mr. Herbert, of Alabama, took the floor in favor of the general features.

NOTES.

The president sent the following nominations to the senate to-day: John Bigelow, of New York, assistant treasurer of the United States at New York; Franz Siegel, of New York, pension agent at New York city.

Obituaries.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 16.—The wife of the secretary of the American legation, Joseph D. Morgan, of South Carolina, is dead.

BOSTON, Dec. 16.—Charles Foster, a once noted spiritualistic medium, is dead.

WASHINGTON, Ga., Dec. 16.—Gen. Robert Toombs died here yesterday morning. The funeral will take place at Washington, Ga., Thursday morning, at 11 o'clock.

Guilty of Murder.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 16.—Robert J. Phillips, who cut his wife's throat in this city last June, has been found guilty, fixing the penalty of death. When he killed his wife he cut his own throat, but not fatally. He now breathes through a silver tube and threatens to pull it out and end his life rather than be hanged.

Scarlet Fever.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 16.—Scarlet fever of malignant type has broken out at the Potomac Episcopal home for children in this city. Eighty-five children are in the home and the situation is alarming. Four deaths have occurred.

Another Outbreak Likely.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

REVER, Mo., Dec. 16.—Within the last twenty-four hours, the aspect of affairs entirely changed. The peace negotiations have fallen through, and an outbreak may be expected at any time.

The Grant Monument Fund.

By Telegram to The Sentinel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The Times says: The fund for the Grant monument was yesterday increased by turning in some special trade subscriptions to the sum of $111,000. This is certainly sufficient to justify the committee in going to work seriously to secure an adequate design.

FRANK RANDE.

The "Bandit of the Wabash," Shines in a Doctor's Shop —A Fort Wayne Criminal.

The Joliet Press is writing up criminal celebrities and writes an epitaph for Frank Rande, the bandit once "sent up" from Fort Wayne. It says: "Of all the ones most execrated in life ever consigned to the prison burying ground was Frank Rande, alias Frank Durand, alias Chas. A. Vanzant; right name Chas. S. Scott, 'the terrible,' born in Clayville, Washington county, Pa., Sept. 23, 1839. Occupation, gunsmith, blacksmith, and chairmaker; done five years in Michigan City (Ind.) penitentiary, serving every day of it (made no good time). Discharged May 2, 77; self-styled 'American brigand, brilliant and daring bandit of the Wabash.' The Gibson and St. Elmo murderer, the St. Louis pawnshop fiend, the slayer of several men, the sensation of '77 and '78 in criminal circles in America; age 38 when received in the pen, Feb. 29, 74, from Galesburg, Knox county, life sentence. His bloody deeds, trial and sentence, had conduct in prison, numerous assault on Deputy McDonald and suicidal death by hanging, March 2, '84, in the solitary, are still fresh in the minds of our readers. His father refused to take his dead body when notified of his death, and he was taken out to the hill, it is said to say, however, that his bones now grace the skeleton closet of some modern Macabre.

MRS. FROST

Gets Judgment For $225 Against Fred Stringer.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Harriett Frost vs. Fred O. Stringer came in this morning with a verdict for the lady for $225. The jury did not implicate Eliza T. Stringer, father of Fred Stringer, and made the verdict entirely against his son. The suit grew out of an accident to Mrs. Frost, who, while crossing Calhoun street, some time ago, was run into and trampled by a little pony ridden by Fred Stringer. Of course Mr. Stringer regretted the matter more than anyone else, but his apology and efforts to atone for the casualty could not stay the suit.

Dr. Monhall in California.

The Los Angeles Express says of the opening of Dr. L. W. Monhall's meeting there last Sunday. "The largest religious movement, without a doubt, was commenced in Los Angeles last Sunday night. Fully 5,000 people assembled in the tabernacle to listen to Dr. L. W. Monhall, the evangelist. He is a good speaker, has a clear, full voice, and talks without effort, and keeps his audience interested with anecdotes and illustrations, and at the same time keeps straight the thread of his discourse." Dr. Monhall will remain in Los Angeles a month or six weeks, and go thence to Portland, Ore.

Christian Missionary Evangelist.

The Indiana Christian Missionary society and the State Sunday School association recently consolidated interests and elected two state agents to work jointly for the two bodies. One of these, Rev. L. L. Carpenter, now announces his retirement from the service of these associations, and the entire work has been conferred upon Rev. J. H. O. Smith, who will have official jurisdiction throughout the state as evangelist and agent.

"The entire detective service of the Government is to be reorganized very soon," said a private detective—a man who was formerly in the secret service. "The chance ought to have been made years ago. These special agents of the Treasury Department have always been a joke. When a man makes a failure of every other business he is ready to be made a special agent. There are three branches of detective service in hunting up violations of the revenue laws. There is the secret service, then come the special agents of the Treasury Department, and besides these are the inspectors of the Internal Revenue Department. These three departments of detective service, I am informed, are to be placed by Secretary Manning, within two or three months, under one head, the secret service. This will in consequence cause the dismissal of the special agents, though many will probably not be needed."

IN IRONS.

Levi Kessler, the Murderer of Lex Harner, Caught at His Father's Home—He Confesses His Guilt.

Sheriff Boyle and Wesley Work, of DeKalb county, remained in the city all night, and this morning received a telegram from Lima, reading "Kessler is in jail. Will have him in Fort Wayne at noon."

Pittsburg passenger train No. 1 whirled the criminal into the city. Marshal Larry O'Neil, of Lima, and his deputy, had Kessler in charge. "The murderer was chained to the deputy marshal and the Scotch cap that covered his head was pulled down to shade his eyes. He was hurried to the 'bus' and the Lima and DeKalb county officers, Sheriff Nelson and newspaper men were driven to the north depot, where Conductor Cooper held the train especially to carry the culprit to the scene of the killing.

En route to the depot, THE SENTINEL man lifted Kessler's cap from his eyes and revealed a fresh scar on the bridge of his nose. "Will you make a statement of the tragedy," said the reporter.

Kessler said not a word. The muscles of his face twitched and he buried his face in his hands, using a red silk handkerchief to absorb the tears that ran from his eyes. "Will you tell me the cause of the tragedy," urged the scribbler.

"I have nothing to say," sobbed the fellow, who never looked a man in the face during the trip. He stepped lightly on the Jackson train and was sped on to the scene of the bloody crime, committed on the Jackson road, between New Era and DeKalb, last Monday morning.

THE CAPTIVE.

Marshal O'Neil, his deputy, and the sheriff of Allen county, proceeded to the home of Daniel Kessler, five miles from Lima, at 1:30 last night. With drawn revolvers they surrounded the house. The elder Mr. Kessler answered a tap on the door and admitted the officers. They stepped into a side room and there on a cot lay young Kessler. He said not a word, made no attempt to get away and dressed himself on short notice. His old mother was aroused and asked, "What does this mean?" Marshal O'Neil said, "Madame, he is charged with murdering Lex Harner." The aged woman gathered herself and looking her son in the face asked: "Did you kill him?" "Yes, mother, I did," replied the boy with tears streaming down his face. Here was a scene. His mother hid her face in her hands. His father stood like marble, so frightful and unexpected was the news.

Kessler left the house with the officers and told the story of the bloody deed: "I killed him for his money," said he. "We walked along the track to a lonely spot and then stepping back I fired two shots into Harner's skull. He fell helpless, I thought, and I hurriedly searched his pockets, getting but a little over $6 and his watch and chain. I took a circuit about and boarded a Jackson train at Stoner's station. This train picked up the man I shot. I went to Fort Wayne and then came over the Pittsburg road to Lima."

Kessler was placed in the Lima jail and the prisoners posted him to silence. After that he would not say a word.

THE PRISONER.

Kessler is about twenty-four years of age, pretty tall and a fresh moustache is sprouting from his ugly face. His cheek bones are high, his eyes evasive and his whole frame is moulded for a scoundrel. A long, imitation new market overcoat encased him. The dead man's watch was found on his person. He carried the 38-calibre revolver he shot him with and already there is a clear case against him.

Lex Harner's body will be shipped to Tanytown, Md., to-morrow. His mother lives there. It is said the dead man's money, or most of it, has been found in his trunk.

It is told that a Pittsburg brakeman slept with Kessler in a hotel, at Lima, Monday night, but did not know of his guilt. The railroader told Capt. Diehl and Lieut. Wilkinson of it this morning.

IN JAIL.

Sheriff Nelson telephoned from Auburn that he arrived there all right and that their prisoner was safely landed in jail. He refuses to say anything to the authorities there, but they have proof of his guilt. Sheriff Nelson will receive the reward offered by DeKalb county.

There are no fears of lynching up north. General Logan thinks it doesn't make any difference about a vice president's grammar.
